

ASSOCIATION OF SRI LANKAN LAWYERS IN THE UK (ASLLUK)

Continuing Education Programme

Global Religious Wisdom as a Source of Enrichment of International Law and an Aide to the Solution of Current Conflicts

Presented by

Justice Christopher Weeramantry

This Course is accredited with 1.5 CPD hours with the SRA and the BSB

BPP Law School (Holborn) 68-70 Red Lion Street, London WC1R 4NY

Tube: Holborn & Chancery lane (Central, Piccadilly lines)

Wednesday 4th September 2013 6.00pm to 8.30pm

Justice Weeramantry.....

Judge Weeramantry is a world renowned jurist, scholar and a writer. He is well known all over the world among senior academics, and high level professionals. Lectures by him are sort after by such high calibre people. He is considered by many to be one of the most outstanding judges ever to have sat on the court, and when the City of the Hague celebrated its 750th anniversary in 1998, it selected judge Weeramantry, from all the judges who had ever sat on the court, to represent The Hague's excellence in international justice. His work and his books were on display in the City Hall for a month to mark this occasion.

Judge Weeramantry, who is both a Doctor of Law (LL.D) and a Doctor of Literature(D.Lit.) of the university of London, is one of the best known legal scholars in the world, having authored over 25 books and has won numerous prizes.

Entrance: £10.00 Sri Lankan Dinner (Rice & Curry) will be provided

Reserve your place emailing your booking to

Ajantha Tennakoon ajanthate@hotmail.com

Payment could be made by bank transfer: Bank of Ceylon A/C No: 00491624 Sort Code: 40 50 56

Please make sure to include Bank reference number which is 01503-800072-00 [ASLLUK] in the information tab.

Cut and paste the acknowledgement you receive from your bank and forward it to Ajantha by email ajanthate@hotmail.com

The Cordoba Foundation

Co organized by The Cordoba Foundation