HUMAN RIGHTS AT SEA

This event is organised by Ensign Events Ltd, a joint venture between Petrosport Ltd and Jeanius Consulting Ltd alongside the maritime human rights charity, Human Rights at Sea.

The International Maritime Human Rights Conference and Dinner is a ground-breaking event which will openly tackle human rights requirements, abuses and protections in the maritime environment.

The impressive conference programme will focus on the core issues affecting human rights across the maritime sector with participation from key representatives of the ship-owning, LGBT, migration and fishing communities.

Topics to be addressed include:

- Seafarer welfare – challenges, responsibilities and the future
- The fishing community
- Gender and LGBT at sea
- CSR and the application of the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights
- Refugees, migrants, immigration and shipping – abuses, investigation and remedies.

The event will feature a keynote speech by Robert Goodwill, MP, Minister of State at the Department of Transport, and the expert speaker line-up includes global maritime industry leaders and world-renowned human rights advocates.

Book now for the conference and networking cocktail reception and dinner
